

International Millets Conference 2023

August 1-3

Promoting Millets through Interdisciplinary Research:
New Varieties and New Markets for a better Tomorrow!

The conference will be held Tuesday, Aug.1, through Thursday,
Aug. 3, at the Gering Civic Center in Gering, Nebraska, USA.

<https://preec.unl.edu/international-millets-conference-2023>

Organized by: University of Nebraska-Lincoln, Rutgers University, and North American Millets Alliance

EXTENSION

RUTGERS
THE STATE UNIVERSITY
OF NEW JERSEY

N A M A
NORTH AMERICAN
MILLETS ALLIANCE

Topics

- Millets production in the US and around the world
- Millets breeders, agronomists, country representatives, and industry partners
- Cropping systems, grain handling, and processing operations
- Expanding existing markets and exploring new markets

Keynote speakers

- Representative, Nebraska Department of Agriculture
- Representative from Colorado Department of Agriculture
- Chris Stum, President, High Plains Millet Association
- Representatives of the US Millets Industries
- Leon and Cheryl Kriesel, CEO & owner, Kriesel Certified Seed Inc., Gurley, Nebraska
- International Panel of Speakers from India, Italy, and Switzerland

For more information contact:

Dr. Dipak Santra 308-765-2324 or dsantra2@unl.edu